N. B. All the Peers, in the Procession, were in their Robes of Estate; and, being Knights of the Garter, Thistle, or Bath, wore the Collars of their respective Orders.

About Half an Hour after One, Their Majesties entred the Abbey, and went to their Seats on the East Side of the Throne. The Archbishop of Canterbury made the Recognition, and then Their Majesties made the first Oblation, and took their Seats on the South Side of the Altar. Then the Litany began; during which, the Regalia were severally presented at the Altar, and the Great Officers retired to their Seats.

The Litany being ended, and Part of the Communion Service read by the Archbishop, Dr. Drummond, Bishop of Salisbury, preached the Sermon; which being ended, His Majesty made the usual Declaration, and took and subscribed the Coronation Oath.

After Veni Creator, His Majesty removed to St. Edward's Chair; and the Unction was performed by the Archbishop, four Knights of the Garter holding a Pall over His Majesty during the Anointing, viz. the Duke of Devonshire, Earl of Northumberland, Earl of Hertford, and Earl Waldegrave. The Spurs were then presented, and His Majesty girt with the Sword, which was afterwards offered and redeemed.

His Majesty was then invested with the Armill, the Purple Robe or Imperial Pall, and Orb, and afterwards receiving the Ring, returned the Orb to the Altar.

The Marquis of Rockingham, Deputy to the Duke of Norfolk, as Lord of the Manor of Worktop, presented a Right Hand Glove to His Majesty, who, putting it on, received from the Archbishop the Scepter with the Cross, and afterward the Scepter with the Dove, into His Left Hand; and the Marquis did afterwards support His Majesty's Right Hand, as Occasion required.

The Archbishop then set the Crown upon His Majesty's Head, about Half an Hour after Three o'Clock, amidst the Acclamations of an infinite Number of Spectators; upon which the Peers put on their Coronets, the Dukes of Normandy and Aquitaine their Hats; the Bishops, Knights of the Bath, and Judges, their Caps, and the Kings of Arms their Crowns.

Then the Archbishop presented the Bible, and pronounced the Benediction; and His Majesty kissed the Bishops, kneeling before Him.

Whilst Te Deum was singing, His Majesty was enthroned; whereupon the Bishops performed their Homage, and then the Temporal Lords; first His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, each for himself. Then the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain, pronounced the Words of the Homage for all the Dukes; the Marquis of Rockingham, for the Marquisses; Earl Talbot, Lord High Steward, for the Earls; Viscount Say and Sele, for the Viscounts; and Lord Henley, Lord High Chancellor, for the Barons; every Peer likewise taking off his Coronet, touched the King's Crown, and kissed His Left Cheek.

During the Homage, His Majesty delivered the Scepter, with the Cross, to the Marquis of Rockingham, (officiating as Lord of the Manor of Worktop) to hold.

In the mean Time, Medals of His Majesty and the Queen were thrown about by the Treasurer of the Household.

The Coronation of His Majesty being finished, the Queen removed from Her Seat on the South Side the Area, to a Chair placed before the Altar, and was anointed, (four Ladies holding a Pall over Her Majesty) and afterward invested with the Ring, and crowned by the Archbishop: Upon which the Peereffes put on their Coronets. The Archbishop then delivered the Scepter into Her Right Hand, and the Ivory Rod into Her Left Hand.

Their Majesties then made their Second Oblation, and received the Communion; and the final Prayers being read, they retired into St. Andrew's Chapel, where they were invested with their Royal Robes and Crowns of State.

A Procession was then made back to Westminster Hall, in the same Order as before, except the Regalia, Prebends, and Choirs, which did not return, and the Marquis of Rockingham, who attended His Majesty to support His Right Arm.

Their Majesties retired into the Court of Wards till Dinner was ready; and then sitting in their Chairs of State, the first Course was brought up with the usual Ceremony, his Royal Highness the Duke of York and his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland sitting at the End of the Table on His Majesty's Right Hand, and her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta, at the other End of the Table, on the Queen's Left Hand. Before the second Course, the Champion was brought up between the High Constable and Earl Marshal, followed by four Pages, and preceded by the Herald, who pronounced the Challenge, the Champion's two Esquires with his Lance and Target, two Serjeants at Arms, and the Trumpets, the Knight Marshal going before to clear the Passage.

Immediately after the Return of the Champion, Garter King of Arms, attended by the rest of the Heralds, proclaimed His Majesty's Style in Latin, French, and English, three several Times; first, upon the Top of the Steps near the Table; next, in the Middle of the Hall; and, lastly, at the Bottom of the Hall.

The second Course was then served up in the same Order as the first. The several Services, which had been allowed by the Court of Claims, were performed; and His Majesty was pleased, after Dinner, to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon John Bridge, Esq; Standard Bearer, and Owen Jones, Esq; senior Gentleman of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and Charles Townley, Esq; Clarencieux King of Arms.

The following Address of the Pastors of the Congregational Churches in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England having been transmitted by Francis Bernard Esq; Governor of Massachusetts Bay, to the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To his most Excellent Majesty King George the Third.

The humble Address of the Pastors of the Congregational Churches in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England at their Convention, May 27, 1761.

May it please your Majesty,

WE beg Leave upon this first Opportunity of our Convening, to pay an humble Tribute of Loyalty and Respect to our Sovereign, and to express our warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, from whose Succession to the Throne of Great Britain we derive a Joy adequate to the uncommon Grief, occasioned by the Removal of our late excellent and beloved King; a King, who will long be remembered as the Father of his People, and the Guardian of the Rights of his Subjects in every Climate.

While we make our grateful Acknowledgments to the Supreme Ruler of the World, whose Providence hath placed the Crown of your Ancestors upon your Royal Head, accept, most gracious Sovereign, our Congratulations upon so happy an Event, from this distant Part of your Dominion, where the Fame of your Princely Virtues hath extended, and the Blessings of your Government are already felt.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we, and the whole Body of the People to whom we minister, have ever regarded, as the Security of our most valuable Enjoyments, the Accession of your Majesty's August House to the British Throne. A glorious Era of Liberty and Happiness, which appears more important, and receives new Lustre from your Majesty's Reign so auspiciously commenced.

The Clemency of your Majesty's Disposition, your tender Regard to the Rights of Conscience, and early Declarations in Favor of Piety and Virtue, afford us the pleasing Hope of that Protection and Indulgence from your Majesty, which your Royal Progenitors ever extended to us: We are the more emboldened in this Expectation, conscious of our Inclination and firm Resolution, by our Instructions and Example, to cultivate, in the People committed to our Care, that Fidelity and Obedience so justly due to your Majesty's Government, and essential to their own Happiness.

We shall not cease most earnestly to commend your Majesty's Person, your Counsels, and your Arms, to the Care and Blessing of the most High; devoutly imploring the long Continuance of a Life, upon which such Hopes depend.

May the Hand of the Almighty support and guard your Throne, and continue to humble your Majesty's Enemies, till the Tranquility of your Kingdom, and the Security of the Protestant Religion, shall be established upon a solid and immoveable Basis! May Divine Wisdom still be the Guide; and the distinguished Felicity of your Majesty's Subjects, the Glory of your Reign; and this Felicity be transmitted through a Succession of Kings in your Illustrious House, to the latest Generation!

In the Name of the Convention,

Joseph Sewall, Moderator.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, with all Humility beseech your Majesty to accept their hearty Congratulations upon the happy Completion of your auspicious Nuptials: A most important and pleasing Event to these Kingdoms; as every Addition to your Majesty's Felicity becomes the common Joy of your zealous and affectionate Subjects.

But when we reflect that the wise and happy Choice your Majesty has made, arises from a tender Sollicitude for the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, we want Language to express the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts at beholding your Throne thus adorned with a Princess so eminently distinguished by amiable Endowments, and whose august Family has ever been conspicuous in the glorious Cause of Publick Liberty and the Protestant Religion.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the City of Rochester, beg Leave, with Hearts filled with the sincerest Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on your auspicious Nuptials.

It is the peculiar Felicity of your Majesty, to rule over a free, happy, and united People, a People so sensible of the Blessings they enjoy, under your Majesty's Government, that the most sanguine Wish they can form for their Posterity, is, That they may always be governed by a Race of Kings, who shall, like your Majesty, approve themselves the Fathers of their Country.

How great then must their Joy be, at your Majesty's having chosen for the Partner of your Throne, a Princess, not only descended from an illustrious House, always attached to your Majesty's Family; but whose personal Virtues and Accomplishments, render her worthy the Affections of a Monarch of Great Britain.

We on our Parts shall never cease, to offer up our Petitions to the King of Kings, That your Majesty may long enjoy every domestick, as well as publick Felicity; That you may see a numerous Progeny, and that there may never be wanting one of your Majesty's Descendants, to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

We cannot enough admire, and therefore with the deepest Sense of Gratitude acknowledge, your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence, in this great and important Event, as it is not only a convincing Proof of your Care and Concern for the Protestant Religion, and the present and future Happiness and Security of your People, but a glorious Example to animate your Subjects to value and countenance the matrimonial State.

We most ardently wish and pray, that the good Providence of God may always watch over your Majesty, and your Royal Consort; that your Majesty may long govern a free and loyal People; that your Reign may be as happy and glorious to yourself, as it is just and beneficial to all your Subjects; and that a Succession of Princes, descended from your Majesty, may inherit your Crown and Virtues to the latest Generation.

When we enumerate to ourselves the several Demonstrations of your Majesty's Love of your People, and the many Acts of unexampled Sollicitude for the Purity and Improvement of our Civil Constitution, with which your auspicious Reign has been opened, we are at a Loss to find Expressions suitable to the Subject, or adequate to the Fulness of our Obligation; more especially when we have so fair a Prospect, through your Majesty's Goodness, of seeing the Blessings of our own Times transmitted to future Generations.

Animated by these Sentiments, and cheerfully relying upon the same Wisdom which has inspired the Councils, and the same public Virtue which so visibly informs and dictates every Action of your Majesty's Life, for the Event and Terms of Peace; what remains for your dutiful and loving Subjects? but to implore the Divine Providence that the eminent Virtues and personal Accomplishments with which your Royal Consort is adorned, may be to your Majesty an uninterrupted Source of domestick Happiness, and that the Sceptre of these Realms may, to latest Ages, be held by a Race of Kings descended from your Majesty, and formed under the Influence of your perfect Example; to be, in their Succession, the Guardians of the Liberties of these Kingdoms, the Bulwark of the Protestant Religion, and the Fathers of an affectionate and grateful People.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Cambridge, warmly affected with every Circumstance in which either the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, or your Majesty's personal and domestick Happiness is concerned, beg Leave most humbly to offer our sincere and fervent Congratulations upon the Celebration of your Royal Nuptials, with a Princess possessed of every amiable and virtuous Accomplishment that can entitle Her to your Majesty's Affection, and to the Esteem and Confidence of your faithful Subjects. This Event is of the highest Importance to these Kingdoms, as it affords the most reasonable Expectation of our Posterity's enjoying, under a Race of Kings descended from your Majesty, those many invaluable Blessings, the full Possession of which constitutes the present, and peculiar Happiness of Britons.

It is with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction; Sir, that we take this joyful Occasion of renewing our strongest Assurances of unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our most ardent Wishes for the lasting Glory and Prosperity of your Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-first Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Palmer, Baronet, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Leicester, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting:

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, on the joyful Event of your Majesty's Royal Nuptials, and to add our most hearty Wishes that it may give as great domestic Bliss to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, as it does public Happiness to your People.

The repeated Glories, which in quick Succession have distinguished your Majesty's auspicious Reign; the great Advantages resulting from them to your Subjects; and above all, that unparalleled Goodness, which hath so amply displayed itself in your Majesty's early Age, could not but fill us with the most comfortable Hopes of the long Continuance of the Happiness and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. But how greatly are these Hopes enlarged by your Majesty's happy Union with a Princess so accomplished, as to add a fresh Lustre, even to your Majesty's Throne: A Union, from which we derive the pleasing Expectation of seeing a Royal Race of Britons, sprung from a British King, inheriting his Virtues, formed by his Wisdom, and imitating his great Example; devoting themselves with your Majesty's Zeal, to the arduous, but noble Task, of adorning and protecting their native Country.

That it may please the Almighty to fulfil this Expectation by blessing your Majesty's Nuptials with a numerous Progeny, glorious and good as their Royal Parents; that your Majesty and your most illustrious Consort may long enjoy the exquisite Delight of seeing them the Boast of this, and the Admiration of other Nations; and that there may never be wanting one of your Majesty's immediate Descendants to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and dispense to our latest Posterity the Blessings we ourselves enjoy, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the Eighteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Portreeve and Burgeses of the Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by Admiral Cotes, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve and Burgeses of the Borough of Great Bedwin in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Portreeve and Burgeses of the Borough of Great Bedwin, most dutifully intreat your favourable Acceptance of their humble, but cordial Congratulations.

Happy, almost to the Extent of our Wishes, under your wise and equal Administration, the Experience of our present Happiness made us solicitous for its Permanency: What human Wisdom could do to secure it to us, your Majesty has effected. The early Celebration of your Royal Nuptials is at once a Proof to us of your providential Regard for your happy People, and an auspicious Pledge of future Blessings.

May the benevolent Author of Love and Harmony improve your Joys, and confirm our Hopes! May those amiable Virtues, which now give Lustre to your Crown, and which have already been significantly favoured by the God of Victory, be transmitted through a lengthened Train of Royal Descendants, like You, Great Sir, the Darlings of their People, the Blessings of their Age, and the Favours of Providence!

Given at Great Bedwin, this twenty first Day of September, 1761.

Such are the Sentiments of Veneration and Love, the happiest of Nations bears to the best of Kings, that we deeply participate in every Accession of Glory or Pleasure our Sovereign obtains, and rejoicing particularly in his present Happiness, we form the most ardent Vows for your mutual Preservation and Felicity. Long may your Majesty enjoy the supreme Satisfaction, of being a Blessing to the Monarch, who is a Blessing to Mankind! And may the universal Homage of a free and powerful People, endear to your Majesty this happy Island, and incline you to look upon its Inhabitants with a maternal Eye of Protection and Love.

Given under our Common Seal this Seventeenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the City of York, has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the City of York, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Joy and Satisfaction glowing in our Breasts on your Majesty's happy Marriage with our most gracious Sovereign, prompt us to seize the earliest Opportunity of paying our dutiful Respects to your Majesty on so welcome and auspicious an Event.

It was the loyal and zealous Wish of every true Briton, to see our illustrious Monarch blessed with a Royal Consort, worthy of so Great and Virtuous a Prince. That Wish is now completely gratified, and the publick Joy, so warmly and heartily expressed, displays our just Sense of your Majesty's shining Accomplishments and distinguished Merit.

From the happy Union of such Royal Virtues, placed in so eminent and exalted a Station, every Thing that is Great and Good naturally results. The Publick will glory in imitating such illustrious Examples; and this fortunate Isle will be every Day more and more the Envy of the World.

May your Majesty long share with our Gracious and Glorious King, the most solid Comforts of conjugal Happiness! May your Throne be blessed with lasting Peace and Prosperity, and may you be the happy Mother of a Race of Princes, in all Respects worthy of their illustrious Descent, and transmitting the Crown with the Virtues of their Royal Parents to the latest Posterity.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge, participating the general Joy which your Majesty's Arrival in these Kingdoms has diffused, beg Leave to present our most respectful Congratulations upon this happy Occasion.

As nothing can be indifferent to us, in which His Majesty's Welfare, or the Good of our Country is concerned; It is with the greatest Pleasure that we have seen His Majesty giving a fresh Instance of his Wisdom, in the Choice of a Consort of such excellent Endowments, as leave us no Room to doubt, but that His Majesty has equally provided for his own domestic Happiness, and for the lasting Felicity of his People: And we assure your Majesty, that as we shall rejoice in every Opportunity of acknowledging the affectionate Concern of our gracious Sovereign for the Rights and Privileges of his Subjects, so we shall never cease to wish that this happy Union may be attended with every publick and private Blessing; and that a numerous Issue of your Majesties may be the certain Pledges of the Continuance of our civil and religious Liberties to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-first Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The many rare and eminent Qualities, which so remarkably distinguish our most gracious Sovereign, have deservedly made him the Darling of his People; and the universal Joy which has spread itself over these Kingdoms on your Majesty's Arrival, sufficiently testifies the Sense they have of those excellent Virtues and Endowments, which render your Majesty worthy of such a Prince.

May your Majesty long continue a Blessing to these Nations; may you enjoy every conjugal Felicity, and may you prove the Mother of a Line of Kings, who will, like your beloved Monarch, make the Happiness of their People the great Object of their Government.

Petersburg, Aug. 25, 1761. General Totleben was brought hither the beginning of last Week, and is now a Prisoner in the Citadel.

Genoa, Sept. 5. Letters from Bastia of the 22d, say, That the Male-Contents continued in the Province of Capi Corio, and were using their utmost Endeavours to reduce that Province to their Obedience, and had got some Cannon of Eighteen and Twelve Pounders to besiege the Fort called Macinaio; that they had taken the Fort Rogliani, and De l'aoi himself was near at hand to forward the Siege of Macinaio. The new Commissary at Bastia has published a Confirmation of the Republick's Edict of the 9th of May, inviting the Male-Contents to return to their Obedience, promising the most favourable Terms to restore Tranquility to the Island; but the Male-Contents did not show the least Inclination to accept the Republick's Offers.

Magdeburg, Sept. 12. Letters from Breslaw of the 6th say, that nothing had happened in Silesia, and that the Armies continued to keep their respective Positions.

Prince Henry is still at Schlettau, and Marshal Daun at Dresden.

The Army of the Empire have retired upon the Approach of General Seidlitz's Detachment. Colonel Beiling, since he was reinforced, has gained some Advantages over the Swedes in Pomerania, and obliged them to draw their Subsistence from their own Country.

The Russian Fleet have done no great Damage to the Town of Colberg by the Bombardment, and it is said they have suffered considerably by the Batteries raised on Shore. General Romanzow had not moved on the 4th; and the Duke of Wurtemberg remained unmolested in his Entrenchments, which are within half a German Mile of Romanzow's Camp.

Magdeburg, Sept. 15. Letters of the 11th from the Commandant of Glogau, say, that on the 9th and 10th the Baggage of the Russian Army had repassed the Oder at Steinau; that on the 10th, Marshal Butterlin, with the Gros of the Army, had separated from the Austrians, and began to move towards the Oder: That General Chernichew, with a Corps under his Command, remained still with General Landohn.

Dusseldorf, Sept. 17. The Head Quarters of the Prince de Soubize were at Recklinghausen the 15th. Marshal Broglia transported his from Sulbeck to Eimbeck the 11th, where he was the 14th.

The Count of Lutice was at Gandersheim; and Baron Clofen at Lambspring; besides which there were some Troops at Maube and Beverungen.

Hamburg, Sept. 18. The British Factory have been making great Preparations against the 22d instant, for celebrating their Majesty's Coronation; and the next Day there is to be a Ball, at which will be present most of the Foreign Ministers and Nobility, as well as the principal Burghers of this City.

Hague, September 18. The Alarm which the March of a large Body of French Troops towards Seesen and Grene had occasioned at Hanover, was entirely dissipated, when the Letter of the 14th Instant came away; it appeared that this Corps of French was destined to cover the Retreat of several smaller Detachments, which had advanced into the Country, with a View of raising Contributions and collecting Provisions. General Luckner, reinforced by General Freytag, is advanced again to Saltz-Gitter, and the Hartz is entirely cleared of the Enemy's Parties.

It is said that General Spoken crossed the Weser at Hoxter, on the 13th Instant, in order to observe the Enemy, disturb his Communications, and put him under a Necessity of repassing the Werra, with the main Body of the Army.

We have no particular News from the Lower-Rhine, except that the French Bakery, which had been established at Wesel, for the Service of the Prince of Soubize's Army, has been transported from thence to Dusseldorf and Neys, from whence that Army will for the future receive its Bread. That Preparations were making at Dusseldorf for the Reception of the Prince of Soubize's Head Quarters.

Hague, September 22. The different Accounts received here, though none directly from the Head-Quarters of Prince Ferdinand, represent the Situation of the Armies, upon the Weser and the Leine, to be pretty near the same as by the last Letters. The Plan of the French Army seems to be to make a military Desert wherever their Detachments come. General Luckner was advanced to Saltz-Gitter, and General Freytag to Saltz-Dittford. As to the Hereditary Prince, he is marched back towards the Bishoprick of Paderborn, and our last Accounts, placed his Quarters at Brumme. The Prince of Soubize has ventured, since his Serene Highness's Departure, to push some Detachments forward again towards Halteren, Dillmen, and Coesfeld.

We are assured that the Russian Army has separated again from the Austrians in Silesia, leaving only a Corps under General Czernichew; and that Marshal Butterlin was marched to repass the Oder again, at and about Leibus.

Whitehall, Sept. 26.

The King has been pleased to confer the Honour of Kingthoood on Peter Fenoulhet, Esq; one of the Exempts of His Majesty's Yeomen of the Guard.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
